15. Talk about your free time. What do you like doing and why?

I'd say my free time is split between two very different things: binge-watching series, which is basically switching my brain off, and meeting friends.

16. Describe your family. Are you close to them?

My family's fairly small — just my parents, my sister, and me — but I'd say we're close, especially my sister and I, since we've shared a lot of experiences together.

17. What is your hometown like?

My hometown's a small coastal city — quiet compared to somewhere like the capital, but it's got a decent restaurant scene and a big park.

18. Talk about your studies or your job.

I'm currently studying business at university, and on the whole I'd say I enjoy it — the lecturers are approachable and I've made some good friends.

19. What are your plans for the future?

In terms of the future, my main priority is finding a job that actually interests me, rather than just taking the first offer that comes along.

20. Do you like traveling? Tell me about a trip you enjoyed.

I'm a huge fan of traveling, actually — last year's trip to Italy with my family really stands out. What struck me most about Rome wasn't the food, but the history.

21. How important is technology in your daily life?

Technology plays a huge role in my day-to-day life, probably more than I'd like to admit. Between messaging, social media, and using apps, it's everywhere.

22. What is your favourite food? Do you like cooking?

If I had to pick one favourite, it'd probably be pasta — there's something about it that never gets old. As for cooking, I enjoy it, although I'm not a professional.

23. Tell me about your friends. What do you usually do together?

I've got a fairly small but close-knit group of friends, and we tend to stick to the same kind of weekend routine — grabbing food, watching movies, or going for a walk.

24. What kind of music do you like?

My taste in music is mostly pop, with a bit of rock thrown in depending on my mood. There's a singer from my country I particularly like.

25. Do you play any sports? How often?

I play football fairly regularly with a group of friends, usually once a week on Sundays. I wouldn't call myself particularly talented, but I'm enjoying it.

26. Do you enjoy shopping? What do you usually buy?

Shopping's something I genuinely enjoy, particularly clothes shopping, which I usually do with my sister. Neither of us tends to spend more than we need to.

27. What do you think about protecting the environment?

I'd say environmental protection is something I take fairly seriously, even if my individual actions — recycling, avoiding the car when I can — are small.

28. What is the weather usually like where you live?

The weather where I live is fairly typical for the region — warm summers, cold winters, and a fair amount of rain in spring. If I had to choose, I'd prefer the summer.
